FINGER FOOD AND CHRISTMAS CLASSES

We are still waiting for council permission so we can begin renovations on the new café in Prahran. As this is taking much longer than hoped we have decided to lock in some dates for Finger Food and Festive cooking classes at Mount Waverley.

Our usual huge mail list is not being sent out for this but the information is mainly going to those who have booked previously with us. If you know someone who would like this information however it can be found on our web site in the next week, or we are happy to send a letter.

Dishes for both Finger Food and Christmas cooking are new. The Christmas lesson will be as usual, food which can be prepared in advance, a great menu for any kind of entertaining as so much planning can be done beforehand. The Christmas lesson will comprise of a light first course followed by the main course which will be a lightly brined turkey breast cooked with an orange butter inserted under the skin and served with a leek stuffing; this will be accompanied by some vegetables, followed by a beautiful dessert you can prepare at least a day in advance.
